Providing Safaris to Tanzania and Kenya

PAUL OLIVER

FEBRUARY 2007

Journey To Africa is excited about working with Paul Oliver, one of Tanzania's most respected guides. Paul has been leading Safaris in Tanzania for the past 20+ years. Since the early 80s, he has been active in promoting 'responsible tourism'. He works with the Tanzanian government on policies to make sure that the National Parks have a long term sustainability plan. Some of the policies he is involved in include partnerships between lodges and Maasai tribe and encouraging environmentally low impact lodges.

Whether this is your first Tanzanian Safari or third, you will enjoy spending time and learning something new everyday with Paul. Paul enjoys guiding people 'off the beaten path'. Some of the locations he favors are Tarangire National Park, which was his home for 15 years when he ran Oliver's Camp until 2005 and South Western and Northern Serengeti. For complete remoteness, the Sanjan and Ol Karien gorge and ancient Gol Mountain region. He also guides in Selous Reserve, Mahale, Katavi and Ruaha National Parks in Southern Tanzania.

SAFARI'S WITH PAUL OLIVER

We arranged a Safari for second time Journey To Africa clients, the Howtons with Paul in January 2007. The Howtons spent 21 days in Northern and Southern Tanzania. Their Safari took them to Selous Reserve, Katavi and Mahale National Park before Paul guided them through Lake Natron and Southern Serengeti. Paul and the Howtons enjoyed the wildebeest and zebra migration as well as the many birds of Eastern Africa. Paul, besides being an expert on wildlife and photography, is an avid birder. He is never far away from his camera and binoculars.
